The purpose of IPA/USA is to protect, preserve, and promote play as a fundamental right of humans, especially children, as guaranteed by the United Nations' 1989 Convention on the Rights of the Child. Play not only provides enjoyment but also facilitates creativity, individuality, and social, emotional, physical, and intellectual growth necessary for the development of self and society.

The American Association for the Child's Right to Play (IPA/USA) is the national affiliate of the International Play Association: Promoting the Child's Right to Play (IPA). As a resident of the USA, joining IPA world makes you a member of IPA/USA. The following membership categories are available for IPA/USA branch.
